Press Release Blurb

Is it time to write and publish your story? Why do you write and who do you write to? Do you need to sharpen your grammar and editing skills? Are you positioned to market yourself as an author and your writing to a reading public? How can you know if God has called you to actively pursue the publication and marketing of your book idea?

Learn what it takes to develop your idea, first draft, or full manuscript into a print book or e-book publication at this one-day workshop for novice and intermediate writers. Foundation building and industry insider workshops explore the independent publishing process and options available from your desktop to publish your written works in print, digital, or online formats.
